Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a single complaint, and we are now offering these remedies at half price to our citizens. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale by Short & Haynes, druggists.

Admiration.

A black boy, aged about twelve months, was lost last night. The parent will reward anyone who brings him home or who keeps him for a week. For particulars apply to Mrs. Nancy Worley.

Henry Winter. Wm. J. Winter. John M. Borntraeger.

"TURN A NEW LEAF"

The time is now at hand when a good many persons "swear off" some of their bad habits—if not all of them—and "turn a new leaf" so to speak. The idea is not a bad one. But, while in the humor, many ought to swear off buying Shoddy Clothing from irresponsible houses and come to us for "Our Own Make"—the best in the world. It won't cost you any more money. Swear off at once.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 4, 1893.

A Vision.

I saw in a vision a man and his bride, Just starting a journey to make, side by side;
'Twas the journey of life from now till the last White mistletoe that marks their pathway is past.

Their eyes brightly shining reflected the joy,
And confidence nothing could ever destroy; Lips that were breathing forth words of delight,
From the bright gleam of morn till the shade of the night.

But that kept time to the music their hearts Heart ringing as sweetly to each other's feet,
That their fitness to journey together shall prove.

I thought of the pathway that lay all before, From now till their journey shall end on the shore,
Where eternity lays o'er the edges of time And their spirits are wafted to heaven's bright clime.

I thought of the clouds that must sometimes hang o'er them, I thought of the shadows that sometimes must fall;
I hoped for the living of silver behind them,
And prayed that endurance be given for all.

I thought of the altar of home they're erecting, Whose power may reach out through the future, connecting Their hearts through the duties that heaven may send,
May its bright light shine o'er them from now 'till the end.

The vision was lifted from view, but I heard, Ever it echoed from 'till, one talismanic word That would guide them through to the bright world above; Said my heart: 'Light of heaven! that one word was Love.'

A Correction.

EDITOR NEWS.—I see in the Hardins-burg department of your paper, last issue, the following item:

"The County Court last Monday rejected the application of J. S. Beavin for a Tavern license with the privilege of selling whiskey at Jolly's station."

Now, verily you must not slander our Hon. Judge in that way. Judge Beavin at least one dozen of the best citizens in the neighborhood swore positively that there was no necessity for a tavern in that place, and only about one-fourth of that number stated in their opinion a tavern was needed, the court decided in favor of the tavern.

But 45 out of the 87 voters in the neighborhood signed and had filed a petition for the granting of said license and they are the boys that rejected the application for a whiskey tavern.

Epworth League at Hardinsburg.
HARDINSBURG, Dec. 21, '92.
The Epworth League is the official young people's society of the Methodist church. It was instituted May 14th and 15th, 1880, at Cleveland, Ohio. It is a "general" or "parent" society under which local leagues, called chapters, are organized. Its object is to promote intelligent and loyal piety in the young members and friends of the church. Rev. W.
A. Smeal, pastor of the M. E. church, at this place, organizes and gives leadership in his church last month. Devotional meetings are held weekly. A public meeting is held monthly, at which all are invited to attend. A special program is prepared for the second Tuesday night in January. It will be of a literary and musical nature. Those who attend will be entertained.

BURAS.
Alonso Buras, is very ill with pneumonia.
There are several cases of pneumonia in this vicinity.
Mr. Pur Tucker has arrived home from The "visitor" to Buras has increased his trips to three times a week, therefore his recompense must be increased or he couldn't afford to come so often.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE.

Miss Mollie J. Newton, of Daviess County.Dies at the Baptist Orphans' Home in Louisville.

The Owensboro Messenger, of Dec. 29, gives the following description of the life and death of this most estimable lady:
"Miss Mollie J. Newton, of this county, died at the Baptist Orphans' Home in Louisville yesterday morning. The remains will be brought to Owensboro today, arriving on the noon train; and the funeral service will be held at the Walnut street Baptist church immediately thereafter. The interment will be at Elmwood."

"Miss Newton went to Louisville on Wednesday, the 11th inst. On account of her frail health some of her friends objected to her taking the trip at this season, but for some years she has been devotedly interested in the Baptist Orphans' Home and could not be persuaded to forego the pleasure of being there during the Christmas holidays."

She was about 60 years old, and although in very delicate health, she maintained that remarkable energy for which she has always been suffering from the disease supposed to be cancer of the stomach, and from this died.

Miss Newton was a daughter of Col.
Win. Newton, who was one of the earliest settlers of Daviess county, long before the present county was organized. She was the only daughter of her father and the only one of her family. She has lived on her father's home place, several miles from the city on the Pleasant Valley road, ever since her death. Her niece, Miss Matilda Field, has lived with her for several years. She was a lovely character. A devout church-member, a philanthropist and humanitarian, she gave liberally to the church and to charity, and was never ceasing in her efforts to do some good.

Her husband, always modest in her good deeds, her left hand hardly knowing what the right did. In meekness of spirit her character was almost unequalled. Her home was virtually a home for the homeless. She was a member of the Baptist church at Macedonia. Her liberality, however, was not confined to her own congregation. She subscribed $500 originally toward the building of the Walnut street Baptist church in this city, and assisted it at various times since.
Her greatest interest, however, of late has been the Orphans' Home, Louisville.
Recently she fitted up the new parlors of the institution at her own expense.

There is much in her life that is worthy of emulation.
Miss Mollie Newton was a first cousin of Miss Eliza and Sae Newton, prominent and respected citizens of this city, who have many relatives throughout this county.

A perfect cure! Mr. Edward K. Roughton, of W. 19th St., New York City, N. Y., says: "I have used several bottles of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family and find it a perfectly reliable remedy."

gent and loyal piety in the young members and friends of the church. Rev. W.
